

In response to your letter dated October 17 regarding the July Monthly Report please note that the Committee is not large enough for an office and pays no rent or utilities. The Committee is run by consultants who are paid fees to conduct the on-going operations of the Committee. Their administrative costs are included in their fees as part of their agreements. These consultant were paid in each month that you have cited.

Pleas contact me with any further questions. Thank you.

*****